Beer Bottles and Cans

In 1516, the proto-German government and Holy Roman empire codified the Reinheitsgebot acts limiting beer to three ingredients. Water, Hops, and Malt. The microbial discoveries of the 19th century lead to the inclusion of Yeast. We feel these give way to categories that can still be appreciated today.

Beyond Dry January

We at Duner's strive to provide a full hospitality experience for all our guests. While most of this book is dedicated to our alcoholic beverages, so many of our dearest friends and family have decided to walk the path of sobriety that it was imperative to us that we present the full gamut of non-alcoholic options. This current listing is just the beginning, and it will continue to grow long after Dry January ends.

Wines by the Glass

Sparkling

VA's Bubbly: Thibaut Janisson, Virginia Fizz, Chardonnay, NV (Waynesboro, Virginia) ...15.....60

Any Virginian in the know goes to Janisson for the moment bubbles are desired. A Virginia classic from a winemaker who has been a pillar of our community for a long, long time.

White

Back to Basics: Cavazza, Collezione Maiolica, Pinot Grigio, 2022 (Delle Venezie DOC, Italy) ... 11....44

One for the fussless, the easy going, the folks who just want a bit of zip and something familiar in the glass. Lemon and lightning; a fine Pinot Grigio that is happily complimented with an ice cube if preferred.

On to Mâcon: Domaine des Parretes, Vieilles Vignes Villages, Chardonnay, 2022 (Mâcon, Burgundy, France)... 13.... 52

Mâcon in the manner we have all grown up loving. A touch of French oak, not so much to make it a California butterball but just enough to tame the sharp bite of malic acid into a smooth bed of refined constraint. Easy drinking and ready to glide along next to any of our plates on the lighter side.

Una Margarita, Por Pavor: Morgadio, Albariño, 2021 (DO Rais Baixas, Spain) 14.... 56

A little bit of lemon, a spritz of fresh lime, and a hint of salinity. The very parts and pieces that makes America's favorite cocktail all coalescing in a wonderful glass of white. For those with the Fifth of May circled on your calendar, this one is for you!

Loire Blanc: Famille Dubard, Coeur Du Mont, Sauvignon Blanc, 2022 (Loire Valley, France).....14... 56

As classic as classic gets for a French Sauvignon. Reserved fruit, chalky minerality, and a mere hint of fresh cut grass dancing on a tightrope of acidity, absolutely ready to elevate any lively greens or critters who once enjoyed the sea. While it might not carry Sancerre on the label, it clearly carries it in the bottles heart and direction.

Summer Sauvignon: Turk Mountain, Domaine Finot Maceration, Sauvignon Blanc, 2022 (Monticello, Virginia)....15.....60

I wanted to bring in something a little different, a bit special. A product of King Family's renown winemaker, this Sauvignon explodes with mango and passionfruit. The wild yeast, whole bunch fermentation, and lightest filtration give life to a vibrance only matched by July sunshine. A true Virginian treat.

Rosé

Pink Burgundy: Louis Jadot, Coteaux Bourguignons, Pinot Noir, 2022 (Bordeaux, France).....11..... 44

A rich, fresh, and fruity rosé ready to stand in as the gateway to warm sunshine on our faces. I'm already looking forward to sitting down in the beach sand listening to the waves come in with this little gem by my side.

Red

Africa via RVA: Lubanzi, Cinsault, 2023 (Swartland, South Africa).... 11..... 44

One of my favorite Virginia wine stories: a group of U of R graduates found themselves exploring the South African coast, trying to keep up with a wandering dog. Cinsault is light, so zippy, and a solid match for basically any dish.

Show Stopper: Santa Julia, La Vaquita, Malbec, Torrontes, 2022 (Miapo Valley, Argentina)13.... 52

Done naturally; no sulfur, additives, or pesticides of any kind. The beautiful blue of the Malbec is fully elevated by the floral notes of the Torrontes. Tiny amount of tannins, but not enough to pull it away from any dish. One of our Swiss army wines. The cow on the bottle is pretty cute too.

Basically Sancerre Rouge: Le Garenne, Pinot Noir, 2021 (Loire, France) 14..... 56

Oh wow, were we happy to find this one! Sourced from vineyards right around the outskirts of Sancerre, this pinot carries all the class and refinement of its formally demarcated neighbors. Our Swiss army knife wine; wonderful with everything we plate.

Eldest Sister: Goldschmidt Vineyards, Fidelity, Meritage Blend, 2020 (Alexander Valley, Napa, Calif.).... 15.... 60

The Goldschmidt has produced an absolute rarity: An affordable Cabernet blend with hand harvested grapes produced and Alexander Valley. Big fruits, supple tannins, and ripe acidity. A real treat with any red meat.

Petite Super Tuscan: Argiano, Non Confunditur, Sangiovese, Cab Sauv, 2021 (Montalcino, Florence, Italy)15.....60

Wines by the Bottle

Corkage: $25 for the first 750ml bottle. $35 for the second bottle. $65 for any exact producer and vintage on list.

Laurent-Perrier, Millésime Brut , 2012 (Tours-Sur-Marne).....	225
Louis Roederer, Cristal , Millésime Brut , 2014 (Reims).....	675

“While many Champagnes come from a blend of vintages, Cristal is a vintage Champagne, made from grapes grown in only the best years. This means the wine isn't made each year. Instead, it is only made in years when the grapes are close to perfection, ensuring the highest quality product.”

Old World Whites

Burgundy

Domaine des Verchères, Macon-Villages, 2022 (Macon, Burgundy France)..... 60

House Macon

Emilio Moro, El Zarzal, Godello, 2021 (Cacabelos, Spain)..... 66

Put down your pitchforks and hear me out, this Godello belongs here so much more than in any Spanish section. Emilio Moro has blended an incredible cuvée of first run juice fermented in stainless steel alongside new and old French oak. One of it's kind in Spain, kind of at home in Burgundy, but that was the Winemaker's intention.

La Chablisienne, Le Finage, 2020 (Chablis, Burgundy, France)..... 68

Pascal Cotat, Les Monts Damnes, Sauvignon Blanc, (Sancerre, France) 210

“It's impossible not to be captivated after laying eyes on the imposing “Les Monts Damnés” vineyard, a near-vertical slope with vines clinging to ancient maritime fossils preserved in rich chalk-limestone soils. Pascal Cotat's annual creation always exists at the pinnacle of Sancerre.” - Ian Cauble, Master Sommelier

Mt. Etna's multifaceted soils helped bring the 2015 Trimarchisa Etna Rosso wine complexity, structure and full maturity. The wine has luscious, perfumed aromatics and depth, weight and complexity while still retaining approachability in its youth. The palate is rich, dense and layered with a very long, persistent finish.

L'Arco, Pario , Amarone Blend , 2019 (Veronese, Italy)	150

A symphony of flavors, born from a perfect marriage of the fruity and approachable Ripasso, and the depth and intensity of Amarone. With every sip, the delicate balance of bright, juicy fruit and crisp acidity comes to life, hinting at notes of sweet Bing cherries, sun-kissed raspberries, figs, and an alluring mix of herbs and baking spices. An experience fit for royalty, this wine will leave you wanting more with every sip.

L'Arco, Rubeo, Cabernet Franc, Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Corvina+, 2017 (Veronese, Italy)

This wine is selected with care during the harvest, dried for 60 days to reach full ripeness. A true original, a cross between old-world traditions and new-world finesse. Deep ruby in color, a bouquet of spices, a sturdy frame, and a touch of elegance. Like an Amarone shaking hands with a Super Tuscan.

Big, Bold, and Beautiful: Alto Moncayo, Garnacha, 2019 (Campo de Borja, Spain) 125

An opaque red-black, with a scarlet rim that practically demands your attention. And when you take a sniff, you'll be hit with a barrage of mineral notes and juicy, super-ripe berries. This is a wine that's deep, rich, and ripe. You're gonna taste those black fruits - cherries, plums, you name it. And just when you think that's all there is, you'll pick up hints of liquorice, molasses, and just a touch of cinnamon. But this wine isn't just a flavor bomb - it's got solid tannins and a focused acidity that give it structure and balance. And the finish? Let's just say it's long enough to make you forget you're not in Spain.

Curated Rare Whiskey Selections

Additional selections available on view at our fireplace mantle.

- #720 Angel's Envy Finished Rye, 100 Proof, Kentucky³⁰
Angel's Envy Rye Whiskey is a hand-crafted, small batch whiskey, aged in Caribbean rum casks and oak barrels. Its aroma boasts ginger, maple sugar, and black pepper, enriched by vanilla and citrus. The flavor is reminiscent of toffee candy with Christmas spices, and it has a warm, sweet finish with nutty and oak undertones.
- #094 Bardstown Bourbon Discovery Series #9, 130 Proof, North America 37
Bardstown Bourbon Company's eclectic blend features components aged 8 to 17 years. The nose presents honey, caramel, and oak, with orange undertones. The palate is rich and nougaty, with flavors of honey, caramel candies, and apple, ending in an oaky, dessert-like finish.
- #007 Booker's, The Lumberyard Batch, 125 Proof, Kentucky 29
"The Lumberyard Batch" bourbon exhibits a classic Booker's aroma with raspberry, oak, and vanilla taffy. The palate is rich with roasted peanuts, dried dark fruit, butterscotch, and cinnamon, and concludes with a long finish featuring vanilla cupcake and roasted nuts. Described as "oaky fruity peanuts," this well-balanced bourbon has a full body and an oily texture.
- #788 Stagg "Junior" Barrel Proof (Batch 18), 132 Proof, Kentucky 41
Introduced in 2013 as a more accessible counterpart to George T. Stagg, Stagg Jr. gained popularity for its unique barrel proof character. The twice-yearly released bourbon is typically aged 7-9 years. Batch 18 presents a new flavor profile with prominent cinnamon and dry oak notes.
- #302 Jameson 18-Year, 80 Proof, Ireland..... 38
Jameson 18-Year presents a deep amber liquid gold appearance. The nose is enchanting with aromatic oils, orange, apricot, dried fruits, wood, toffee, and with water, it reveals sherry, chocolate, and bourbon biscuit notes. The palate is smooth and refreshing, featuring toffee, spice, oiled wood, leather, vanilla, Turkish delight, and a sherry nuttiness, culminating in a firm and long finish of oak, spice, toffee, and unmalted barley.
- #789 Murray Hill Club Bourbon, 103 Proof, Washington, D.C..... 33
The Murray Hill Club Whiskey is a blend combining bourbons and light whiskey, with flavors of butterscotch, honey, toffee, spices, vanilla, and char. The nose presents pecan pie, salted caramel, oak, and dark chocolate, while the palate is viscous with caramel, vanilla, honey, nutmeg, and oak. It has a moderately long finish with notes of caramel, chocolate, and mixed nuts.
- #415 Orphan Barrel Muckety-Muck 25-Year Scotch, 91 Proof, Scotland 45
The Muckety-Muck 25-Year Single Grain Scotch Whisky boasts a luxurious profile with a nose of brown sugar, vanilla, and orchard fruits, and a palate akin to apple pie. This rich whisky, aged in American first-fill casks, concludes with a sweet and refreshing minty finish, making it an ideal choice for a special after-dinner indulgence.
- #983 Elmer T Lee, 90 Proof, Kentucky 50
Elmer T. Lee, renowned for his 36-year tenure as Master Distiller at Buffalo Trace, innovated the first mass-produced single barrel bourbon. His namesake bourbon reflects his legacy, presenting an understated elegance. It originally stood out in a less competitive single barrel market and has grown in reputation due to its scarcity. Despite its quality and value at its original price, the allure and subsequent market upcharges due to its elusive availability somewhat distort its true essence as a classic, solid bourbon, capturing the soul of Buffalo Trace Distillery.

#021 Yamazaki 18-Year, 86 Proof, Japan..... 100

Exquisitely rich with a captivating blend of dark fruit and floral notes showcasing the artistry of Japanese whiskey-making. Yamazaki 18-Year is exceptionally rare, making for a truly memorable and refined choice, perfect for those seeking a unique and luxurious whiskey experience. Embrace this esteemed spirit available for a limited time at Duner's
